

Rodney social..This is an intriguing one. I don't remember it, but recognise many faces among the girls and some names. It's obviously the beautiful and talented Rosemary Backwell Smith receiving some sort of award, and people looking shocked. In the lefthand foreground is Billy Coulter (dark wavy hair). In the left mid ground is Susan Cooper, to the right mid ground I recognise Lyn Evans, Janice Hardman , Rosamund Collins - all girls I knew well and who were a couple of years below me. I don't recognise any boys or indeed anyone from my year. However, in the far background are a number of teachers from my era, some in evening dress. I would put the date 1957-1958. Actually, I think it's a really lovely photo. I just wish I could remember more about it.
